

ANCIENT RELIC IS FOUND IN MEXICO

Is Said to Be Oldest Known
Dated Antiquity in America.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A small stone tablet found near Vera Cruz, Mex., which has been in the possession of the United States National museum since 1900, has recently been identified as the oldest known dated antiquity in America. Its ancient Mexican origin is certain, because it was made before Christ, while the date given is A.D. 312.

The unique object was originally found by a peasant, while plowing in the district of San Andres Tuxtla, near the coast of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and was given to the museum through the courtesy of Mr. E. P. Burchell, the next year. It is composed of very hard, grayish-green stone, and is of nephrite, having carved into a rounded oval form, about 6½ inches in height and 3½ inches in diameter at the base. Its general outline give the impression of an old Mexican idol or pot in a cap or cassock. The upper

An Appreciation

The deposits of the American National, for the first time in its history, are averaging above $3,500,000.00. A gain of $1,000,000.00 was made in 1915. We feel that a growth of 40 percent in one year is a notable incident. While our enlarged quarters and increased facilities have been responsible for part of this satisfactory showing, we feel that it is largely due to the cordial support which this bank has received from its customers and friends. We desire at this time to extend our appreciation for such support, and urge upon our customers to favor the officers with any suggestions whereby the bank can give better service in furthering their interests, and contribute in a still greater degree to the growth and development of the community of which it is a part.

BAREFOOTED SERBIAN WOMEN AND CHILDREN FLEE GERMANS

As the Teuton and Bulgar armies advanced, terror spread among the native peasants of Serbia, and gathering their scant belongings they fled towards hospitable Rumania and Greece. The picture shows Serbian peasant women and their children fleeing barefooted along one of Serbia's miserable roads in the freezing cold of early December, taking their cattle and household goods along with them.

HE PAID GLADLY.

"And so," she said to the bachelor who had blundered into the electric chair, "you have to pay double."

"Why?" he asked.

"Because you're a badman."

"That's right," he drawled, "I'm worth it."

TOLD THE TRUTH.

"Brooks—By the way, old man, do you remember borrowing ten dollars from me six months ago?"

"Sure, yes."

"Good—but you said you only wanted to borrow it for a short time."

"Short—and I told you the truth. I didn't keep it twenty minutes."
